FROM ONE OF THE LEADING ORCHARD MEN
IN NORTHWEST ARKANSAS

Whitner, Ark.
November 10th., 1923.

Mr. John Parker,
Fayetteville, Ark.

Dear Mr. Parker:

It would do your soul good to see the growth that your Stayman Winesap trees, which I bought from you last Spring, has put forth this summer and fall. They are way above your head and the leaves are still on them since the hard frosts. We have grown many trees from sprouts to monarchs of the orchard, but these are the finest we have ever raised. You ought to come out and see them; it's an inspiration and nothing short.

One thing is sure, you either know how to grow the grafts, or we know how to raise the trees; probably both.

Your Friend,
Ruby V. Hughes.

Farmington, Ark.
April 30, 1922.

Dear Sirs:

In regard to the 500 apple trees bought of you last fall, I will say they are all alive and as far as I know all right. Everybody says they are fine and look good, for which I am pleased.

Yours truly,
H. J. White.

John M. Parker,
Fayetteville, Ark.

Dear Sir:

Our orchard is growing fine and it pleases us in every way. The trees are leafing out and look fine. Everything seems like we ordered.

Thank you, "Uncle Jonn."

Yours truly,
S. T. Shern.

John M. Parker & Son,
Fayetteville, Ark.

Dear Sirs:

I received the 100 apple trees from you some time ago and they were absolutely the finest one year old trees that I have ever bought regardless of price and if that is the kind of goods you folks always sell I am sure that we will be able to do a great deal of business because I buy a lot of goods in your line for the people in my colony.

Yours Truly,
E. A. Steckel.
